Pro-Life: Jean Daniewicz spoke about the Freedom of Choice Act (FOCA) cards that we will be receiving from the diocese. The Rosary for Respect Life will be said on Thursday, January 22, 2009 before the 8:15 A.M. Mass. There will be a Pro Life Rally in Baraboo at 3:30 P.M. in the afternoon. In April the bulletin will be asking for help with flowers for life.

Clerical: A group got together on November 11, 2008 and checked and repaired the red Worship hymnals in church. On January 6, 2009, one of the groups helped with copying, stamping, labeling and stuffing envelopes. Telephone calls were made to remind the Confirmation Class about the Sponsor Meeting on Sunday, January 11. A lunch was served after the meeting. Some individuals on the Food Preparation list brought some of the food for the lunch. Some of last year's Confirmation class helped to setup, serve the lunch, and clean up afterwards. Another group helped to collate and staple 90 booklets for the High Schoolers, and also make copies and folders for the 2nd grade 1st Reconciliation Retreat. On Friday, January 23, 2009, the following worked on writing the senators' names on the FOCA cards which will be filled out on the weekend of the 24th and 25th: Deloris Hicks, Carolyn Schwarz, Alan Sherman, Margaret Fuchs, Sandy Bruckert, Sr. Lorene Haas, Margie Watson, Catherine Breunig, and Della Ryan.

Mobile Meals: Ann Black will get a group together at the end of April to help with this.

Food Pantry: Julie Falleck contacted Sue Lloyd. A group will help with this project. Our turn is to help one Saturday during the month of February. More details will be available after the date is known.

It was decided to have our next meeting in about two months.
